The Melbourne Fringe is coming to town!

Melbourne Fringe invites you to join us from 22 September – 10 October to celebrate and uncover the best, the newest, and the most un-predictable.

Melbourne Fringe, motivated by an adventurous and playful spirit, celebrates, supports and resources contemporary artists and arts practice. It encourages exploration and investigation that challenges the arts as we know it, searching for new boundaries that provide creative experiences not yet seen, or heard.

Despite being one of the oldest arts Festivals in Melbourne, the Melbourne Fringe remains dedicated to the Peter Pan existence of Never Never land, and promises to never grow up. This year the festival boasts a bumper-crop of arts action with thousands of artists presenting adventurous work that crosses all art forms.

Get ready for a full-scale rollercoaster ride of cultural adventure.

The 2004 Melbourne Fringe Festival presents works that will change the landscape of the city for 19 extraordinary days from 22 September – 10 October.

The North Melbourne Town Hall again pumps up the pace, churning out art at a rapid-fire rate. Get out and check out the 240 events inhabiting nooks, crannies and dark alleys in venues right across Melbourne and the inner suburbs. Our open access Independent Program will again be a lifeblood of creativity and daring, presenting the best in new and creative ideas.

Strange sightings are being reported all over Melbourne... Federation Square is ambushed by artists. Shed 14 has surfaces that are subject to change at Docklands. The shelter at NGV forecourt changes daily to reflect ideas of 'home'. Spontaneous Constructions are happening at the 20th Fringe Furniture Exhibition at the Melbourne Museum. Electronic sounds and sights are oozing out of Fitzroy Town Hall at electroVision@Fringe. Inventive and wacky children's and adults ideas are out there at Chapel Off Chapel. Then there's OUTrageous OUTbursts of OUTdoor performance at Federation Square... and What's For Sale?

For clues, information and tickets, go to www.melbournefringe.com.au or visit the information/ticketing bus at Federation Square.

Melbourne Fringe Festival runs from 22 September – 10 October 2004.
