Melbourne Fringe is moving north, bounding up to the ranges of Northcote's Ruckers Hill, Clifton Hill, North Fitzroy, North Carlton and Brunswick.

The 2004 Melbourne Fringe Festival is exploding into action in the north of inner Melbourne with over 30 events across this grassroots home of creativity, Fringe North.

The Northcote Project kicks off the party with 20 events along a 200 metre strip of High Street, all a short stroll from each other.

The myriad of Fringe North venues include The Storeroom, The Foundry, Dancehouse, The Northcote Uniting Church, Kick Gallery, DDT Studio, Wesley-Anne, Synergy Gallery, Cusp Gallery, Glitch Bar and Cinema, 303, Stuzzi, The Vic, Terra Firma, Vanguard Gallery, Trax Box, Edinburgh Gardens, Ray Café, Mechanics Institute Performing Arts Centre, Wall, Counihan Gallery and even the Zoo. WOW!

Across Fringe North there will be a plethora of creativity throughout Melbourne Fringe including; Melbourne International Comedy Festival Raw Comedy Finals; a Secret Cabaret's fireworks show; new performance work from Latrobe University's Theatre and Drama program; the latest performance work from the award winning creators of Ticky Tacky (2003 Melbourne Fringe) and Gilgamesh (2004 NextWave) and the High Vibes street party.

In addition to the main festival program, Melbourne Fringe is creating a Fringe North mini guide. The guide will consist of listings for all festival events that are bursting into action north of Alexander Parade linage.

So Grab your Fringe North Mini Guide and GO NORTH!
