North Melbourne Town Hall

Armed with all the ingredients of festival folklore, the 2004 Melbourne Fringe Festival is winding up for another monumental chapter in Fringe history.

Join us in celebrating the end of winter hibernation at the North Melbourne Town Hall Arts House.

On Friday 24 September, artists and audiences are invited to whip themselves in to a frenzy in anticipation of the ravenous 2004 Festival beast, when the doors open for the Opening Night Preview Party.

With special prices for a special occasion, most shows will be offering 2 for 1 tickets on Opening Night and Tight Arse Tuesdays with all tickets $10.

With 33 of the most diverse and creative companies presenting a full scale feast of the senses, delivering comedy, music, performance, physical theatre and a just a touch of sci-fi. In 7 venues, over 14 days, and just once a year, Melbourne Fringe will create an uproar full of late nights and long weekends.

Announcing the arrival of Rated G the 2004 Fringe Family Program, we're celebrating the school holidays with a series of family matinees over the weekend of 2 and 3 October in and around the North Melbourne Town Hall.

...and when it's too late to go home, head downstairs to the Festival Club to heighten your festival experience; mix with artists and festival crew over a palate cleanser, enjoy late night showcases, the sounds of festival DJ's, or the lure of the House Band. Open every night from 24 September to 9 October excluding Mondays.

Full season details available within the festival program or in bite size chunks via the Ticketing Hotlink 24 hours at www.melbournefringe.com.au
