Melbourne Fringe
Presents
NORTH MELBOURNE FESTIVAL HUB

Once a year, this is where it's at!

The year just got bigger with the 2005 Melbourne Fringe Festival Hub being remixed, revamped and reinvented. Doubling in size and staging more than 50 events, the Festival Hub spreads across nine venues incorporating the North Melbourne Town Hall, The Lithuanian Club, Czech House and The Courthouse Theatre.

The North Melbourne Festival Hub is THE epicentre of the brand new, the exciting and the latest in expression through art.

Whatever you fancy, however intimate, you'll find it at the Festival Hub: Performance, Cabaret, Comedy, Dance, Movement, Music and Circus.

The Hub swings its doors open with a huge Opening Night Party on Friday 23 September. On Saturday 1 October things kick off a little earlier with 'Matinee Saturday' presenting seven shows plus a Character Comedy workshop.

The Festival Hub is also home to The Festival Club, the place to hang out between shows or party 'til the wee hours or both. See www.melbournefringe.com.au for daily updates of what's on in the Club. Highlights include: The League of Sideshow Superstars, Tripod, Arj Barker, 'Antenna' an electro/VJ themed night and the inaugural Fringe Alumni 'get back to where it's at' Party.
