FRINGE SOUTH

Hit the shores of Fringe South for the 2005 Melbourne Fringe Festival. From Southbank to St Kilda, via Port Melbourne and Prahran, enjoy the vast array of events on offer as part of Fringe South.

In 2005, 14 venues south of the Yarra will host 34 Fringe Festival events. Punters in the inner south will have an array of diverse performances, exhibitions and events to choose from.

Catch an exhibition or forum at The Arts Centre. Head to the CUB Malthouse, one of Melbourne Fringe's exciting new venues, for Eddie Perfect in 'DRINK PEPSI, bitch' or the Logie award-winning team behind CNNNN and Election in 'Cirque du Chaser'.

Theatreworks is again offering a curated program of ten performances in rotation that promise to be full of surprises including Melbourne Breaks and a collaboration between Born in a Taxi and Rawcus 'Not Dead Yet'.

Chapel Off Chapel hosts Fringe Ideas, an exhibition of Melbourne's youngest creative thinkers plus the return of the highly successful Fringe Family Day - a dynamic, hands on day inviting families and kids to stretch their imaginations and build giant windmills and megadomes.

Keep your eyes peeled for the 2005 Fringe South mini guide highlighting all that the Festival has to offer south of the Yarra.
