Around the Multiverse in 80 Ways

What? When you live in a universe of infinite possibilities, inherent contradictions and more paradoxes than you can poke a possibly dead cat at, there's only one team you can rely on...THE WORMHOLE PATROL!

Where? Flying into orbit Wednesday and Thursday nights at the Red Violin 1/231 Bourke St, Melbourne.

Who? A bumbling space captain who thinks light speed is a diet drug; the faithful deputy blindly following his captain when others would more likely kick his space cock; their seriously hot communications officer; and a myriad cast of intergalactic funksters!

How? Yes, join us on a 5 minute mission that's been stretched to near infinity because we're cruising at the speed of light, as we burst in and out of various dimensions in our spaceship, the U.S.S. REALITY BALLBREAKER, so we can catalogue them all in the name of science and everything that is good, sort of!

Why???????

"EMBRACE your inner geek for a night of science fiction and surrealism with the gang presenting Around The Multiverse in 80 Ways." - Herald Sun
