Cat Commander is: Falling A cabaret of original songs and storytelling

Cat Commander is: Falling. Falling in love. Falling out of love. Falling flat on her face. In this 50 minute show, Cat chronicles the moments that have brought her to her knees. Under the direction of cabaret veteran Karlis Zaid (The Beautiful Losers, Filthy Secrets).

Cat is a Perth born artist who trained at the VCA and is using her musical and songwriting talents to explore intimate relationships through song.

Each song is paired with a monologue which gives a voice to the characters that are featured in the songs.

Cat will play her original compositions on acoustic guitar to underscore the stories that she sings.

The confessional nature of the show is suited to the intimate space of the Butterfly Club, located in South Melbourne.

"When we let go, we fall at a frightening pace, not knowing when next we'll have something to hold on to someone to hold on to us." - Original Song by Cat Commander
