Chloé Charody's 'The Carnival' A Circus Opera

CHLOE CHARODY'S "THE CARNIVAL"

A circus opera!

Direct from London's West End and trailing rave reviews from across the globe, 26-year-old Australian composer and producer Chloé Charody's hit circus-opera 'The Carnival' returns to Melbourne for the 2011 Fringe Festival following a season of sell out shows at Red Bennies in May earlier this year.

Expect a wild operatic circus where the audience is swept up in a wild carnival of contortion, classical virtuosity, fire and mayhem with the extraordinary risqué classical beauties Ilythian featuring several of Melbourne's finest circus performers.

Originating from Australia, Ilythian have achieved world wide recognition through their innovative theatrical circus - style presentation of classical music and are quickly paving the path for the future of the genre. Ilythian join the creme of Melbourne's circus scene to take you on a journey to the chaotic, beautiful and extraordinary world of The Carnival inside a magical Music Box.

Where concert blacks are replaced with glitter and lace, contortionists, musical virtuosos, fire performers and aerial acrobats litter the stage, international theatre producer and composer Chloé Charody is breathing life to a new era in classical music.

"Blooming fantastic... it's almost frightening to surmise just how good they can be." - The Daily Telegraph
