Lawrence Mooney in An Indecisive Bag of Donuts

An Indecisive bag of Donuts is a day in the life of one man's struggle with procrastination. This show is for anyone who has ever put off anything important in favour of popping down the shops or taking the dog for a walk.

Following a sell out season at the Melbourne International Comedy Festival, where the show won Crikey.com's Best of The Fest, An Indecisive Bag of Donuts returns to help us laugh at how we fritter our lives away.

Lawrence Mooney has been performing Stand Up comedy for 17 years and An Indecisive Bag of Donuts is widely regarded as some of his finest work.

"There's a good reason why comedians around the Melbourne comedy circuit speak of Mooney with a tone that borders on the reverential; he's one of Australia's best and boldest, a ferocious farceur who makes great comedy look like a cakewalk."

Luke Buckmaster - Crikey.com

An Indecisive Bag of Donuts derives its name from the deep fried sugary treats Mooney uses as a distraction from life's urgencies. In this show the audience are taken on a trip through myriad time wasting devices this comedian uses whilst desperately trying to write his new show. His procrastination is so all consuming that in the end it becomes the show.

This piece touches on many aspects of the contrary nature of the human condition and ends up asking, "what is it we're supposed to be doing anyway?"

"An Indecisive Bag of Donuts is a well paced, carefully structured, intelligent comedy." Artshub

"Doubled Over with Laughter" - Herald Sun - Michael Ward

"A ferocious farceur who makes great comedy look like a cakewalk." - Luke Buckmaster crikey.com

"Mooney is supremely relaxed and the audience should be too – they're in one of the festival's safest pair of hands." - Herald Sun - Dan Ziffer
