Leaving Leongatha

In Leaving Leongatha, comedian Beau Stegmann reveals the absurdities and similarities between the simplistic lifestyle of a town of 600 with the tangled web of "cultured" Melbourne. In his debut stand-up solo show, he leads the audience through a cultural exploration of Australia and learns why embracing where you came from can benefit everyone you meet.

In this hilarious journey, Stegmann tackles controversial topics such as Aboriginal land rights and Muslim integration, as well as informing us why refused entry to prominent Melbourne nightclubs are contributing to the fall of modern Australian society. His outward exploration leads to a self-discovery that we all have something to offer.

"Excellent comic timing" - Chortle.co.uk

"Genuinely funny" - Herald Sun
