Obsession is a unique cabaret written By Pauline Agius (Melbourne Fringe Festival Outside Eye recipient) and Sean Moran, Directed by Pauline Agius and performed by Moving Theatre. Obsession is like no other cabaret, Moving Theatre have put their own little twist into the norm of a traditional cabaret in order to create a one of a kind theatrical experience. Incorporating live music, theatre, dance, visual and multimedia art, acrobatics and physical theatre. Performed by a cast of 20 young emerging artists from the west. Obsession is the biggest show created by Moving Theatre in their four years .

Performed in Melbourne's West, in Sunshine at the Euro Masonic Hall, Moving Theatre's Obsession will be the first Melbourne Fringe Festival show performed in this venue. Obsession is proudly supported by The Dog Theatre, MAUSSIES, Youth Junction Inc, and The Brimbank City council.

The creation of Obsession has been inspired by the seven deadly sins and the ideas of our actions in day to day life and the idea that all of our actions have a consequence, and it is up to us to decide whether our actions take up on the right path or lead us into a spiral of devastation.

An obsessed lover, a gold digger, a pig, competitive twins, a young girl defeated, a husband and a plastic surgery addict.

Set in purgatory these seven characters are put on trial, urged to redeem themselves of their sins, step into a circus of sin where you will be the judge of who enters heaven and who melts in the fiery pits of hell.

"Some rise by sin, and some by virtue fall" - William Shakespeare

"The pleasure of sin is soon gone, but the sting remains." - Thomas Watson

"Obsession is the Art of being obsessed" - Moving Theatre
