Revs

Gonna get my history on

Second time Melbourne Fringe Festival writer/performer Jorge Tsipos takes on history in his production of Revs. Revs is an insightful and funny one man show examining the hilarious and bloodthirsty carousel that is a populous uprising. From France to Russia, from then to now, he'll make you laugh, he'll make you cry and who knows, you might even learn something. Revs has a limited season at The Wesley Anne.

Revs is about history. Revs is about what happens when power goes astray. Revs is about the ways that humanity has with dealing with that eventuality and coming back to the start-line for more.

It is essentially a story about hope, about human nature. It asks important questions about how we got here and why we keep making the same mistakes.

It's colloquial, fun, funny and informative. It's a show by the people, from the people and for the people: because history always shows us, the people always have the last word...

"This is the best thing I have ever seen with my eyes and heard with my ears. No joke." - Jorge Tsipos
