Ryan Coffey Live and Stupider

Tired of shit musical comedy? So was Ryan Coffey (Raw Comedy 2008, Golden Gibbo Nom 2011). Armed only with a guitar, a loop pedal and the voice of a rock god he made himself into a one-man Black Keys - with dick jokes. If you like your comedy raw, your riffs dirty and your beards enormous this is your show. The Conchords are pussies!

Ramshackle loop-pedal genius, Ryan Coffey exploded onto the scene in MICF, receiving a nomination for the Golden Gibbo. Since his RAW Comedy National Final performance in 2008 he has been honing his style at uber hip Pure Pop Records in St Kilda, emerging with a truly unique approach to musical comedy.

With the voice of a rock god, the guitar chops to match, and the gut wrenching observational honesty of a seasoned stand-up, this is likely to be a cult hit this festival.

No time is wasted, with just as much time spent working on incisive observations as is on great stand-alone songs. You are sure to spend the next two weeks trying to get the tunes out of your head.

Coffey, an establish St Kilda secret, is an overdue Fringe debutante. This is the moment. This is the show you'll be telling your friends about.

"Genuinely hilarious nonsense." - Herald Sun

"Slick, Polishied - Expertly Presented" - chortle.co.uk

"Someone needs to send this guys business card to HBO and get him his own show" - Inpress
