The Jitterbug Club: Exotica Lounge

THE JITTERBUG CLUB: EXOTICA LOUNGE

The Hoodoo Emporium (Mojo Juju & co., creators of the Jitterbug Club) welcome you to another time and another place.

This time, with EXOTICA LOUNGE, they are back to take you on a guided tour deep into the jungles and fantasy Islands of the 50's and 60's. Here you will find tiki bars and Go Go Girls, linen suits and lounge music.

Last time they surfaced, The Jitterbug Club, took their audience deep into 1930's Harlem, a world full of hot jazz & showgirl follies.

This time around they're living a different indulgence, taking place on a cruise ship circa 1959, sailing the uncharted waters of exotic islands that lie somewhere between the South Pacific and the Orient, but only ever exist in the realm of cocktail lounges and pure fantasy.

Featuring those lovely ladies of temptation - 'The Jitterbeetles' and special guests Mikelangelo & The Tin Star playing the songs of Les Baxter, Martin Denny and an original score of 'Exotica!'.

Dress code - 60's cocktail lounge.

""Think Weimar Cabaret, juke joints of the Deep South...enough titillation and tap dancing to have you searching amongst feathered fans and tattoos for more surprises, and you'll be doing the cakewalk right back to the Cotton Club..."" - Arts Hub
