The Keytar Kid

'The Keytar Kid' is the latest work from songwriter-comedian Mr Brady. Mr Brady takes the 'keytar', the love-child of guitar and keyboard, on a funky odyssey into the world of retro-glam-paradiso. Join him as he proves what you can do with just 32 mini-keys, 25 preset rhythms and a pitch-bend wheel.

Brady's debut show last year, 'Honeymoon in Harlem,' was reviewed by The Age as having "lovely musical moments in there, and good laughs...there is no doubting the talent."

His debut album, 'She's Relatively Sexy', received an honourable mention among Beat Magazine's 2009 albums of the year with the recommendation "Go and find it, it's awesome." He's currently recording the follow-up.

A former winner of the Melbourne University Comedy Competition, Mr Brady has a highly theatrical stage presence. Musically, he is a cross between Nick Lowe, Gilbert O'Sullivan and Flight of the Conchords.

"...there is no doubting the talent" - Margaret Paul, The Age
"Cute and classy pop" - Zan Rowe, Triple J
