The Last Tuesday Society Presents: Do you remember the first time?

For one night only the motley crew of the underground performance institution The Last Tuesday Society are going to depict the events that broke their theatrical hymens.

Those moments when the grubby glare of the spotlight beckoned and life-long exhibitionists were born. School eisteddfods, dance concerts, music recitals, self-devised shows and dodgy plays. All that filthy nostalgia is going to be aired like so much dirty laundry for your delight and delectation. The Last Tuesday Society wants to know: what was your first time like?

Hosted by Richard Higgins (The List Operators) and Bron Batten (Sweet Child of Mine) and featuring all your favourite Last Tuesday artists.

"A wonderfully absurd slant on all things." - Annalisa Giudici, Sunday Age

"The jackass of arty pub performance events... the well-dressed step-child of experimental theatre" - threethousand.com.au

"Be prepared to waive your right to be offended at the door..." - Arts Hub
