The Polyphonic Comic Frolic Musical comedians come to play

The one-off Melbourne Fringe music comedy extravaganza is back for 2011 and with a brand new name - The Polyphonic Comic Frolic! Its spectacular debut last year had people rolling in the aisles and dancing all night long, and in 2011 this Fringe event is set to be even bigger and better.

The Polyphonic Comic Frolic will be hosted by Melbourne's own high-energy comedy band fresh from their UK tour, Anyone for Tennis? 'An absolute don't miss for the Fest's young 'n' cool crowd. And everyone else' - Herald Sun

Plus a top-class selection of polyphonic comics in the Fringe and beyond including 2010 Melbourne International Comedy Festival Best Show winner Sammy J, 2011 MICF Golden Gibbo Nominee Ryan Coffey, Anne Edmonds 'Still laughing the next day...simply a fantastic performer' - The Age, Al Newstead 'A brilliant comic masterclass in music appreciation' - Chortle - Aus, plus many more to be announced.

Don't miss the toe-tapping hilarity of The Polyphonic Comic Frolic – it's the night when the best musical comedians come to play.
