Fringe

2 August 2011

the transit lounge

The TRANSIT LOUNGE - performed by Marjetka MacMahon and Bianca Evans at The Northcote Town Hall, October 5,6,7 and 8 at 7:00 pm.
Come aboard for a journey through space and time for a short space of time. Sit back, relax and gaze at other people having a hard time coming to grips with it all, and hoping for a happy landing.
(warning : some scenes contain semi nudity and balloons)

The performance glimpses into the life of a woman as she sorts out what is important and what should be cast aside.

The cast comprises 2 actors :Marjetka MacMahon, the founder of Roarhouse, an arts collective that provides an artistic outlet for all people, including those marginalised by mental health issues.
The other actor is Bianca Evans, a new-comer to the stage and is thrilled to be part of the famous and exciting Melbourne Fringe Festival.
