The Wau Wau Sisters' Last Supper Saviours, Sinners and Showgirls

Who says you're not allowed to love everybody?

Let The Wau Wau Sisters show you the way!

Following their sold out summer Australian tour New York's The Wau Wau Sisters return to Melbourne for an exclusive Melbourne Fringe season at Melbourne's newest and sexiest performance space - GH Hotel.

New York's bravest and bawdiest burlesque duo, serve up a sinful night of chaos, burlesque, comedy and circus that has critics raving.

Stars of La Clique, The Wau Wau Sisters' Last Supper is a funny, raucous, ridiculous reinvention of the Last Supper, complete with 12 disciples, umpteen cocktails, endless fun and fearless abandon.

With a defiant mix of hell-raising humour and mesmerizing mayhem, watch catholic schoolgirls turned born-again Country Western stars gather dandies, derelicts and disciples along the way as they recreate the Last Supper full of saviours, savants and showgirls!

The Wau Wau Sisters have made appearances at festivals and venues including the West Yorkshire Playhouse, Sydney Opera House, The Victorian Arts Centre, The Famous Spiegeltent (Sydney, Auckland, Edinburgh, NYC), The Mayan Theater (Los Angeles), Soho Bar (London), El Cid (Los Angeles), The Grammys (Los Angeles Staples Center), Irving Plaza (NYC), The Palms (Las Vegas), The Hammerstein Ballroom (NYC), The Bowery Ballroom (NYC), The Henry Fonda Theater (Los Angeles), The Pica Festival (Portland, OR) and the Jermyn St. Theater (West End, London).

Television and film exploits include the feature film Shortbus by John Cameron Mitchell (Hedwig and the Angry Inch), Who's the Top? by Jenny Livingston (Paris Is Burning), Paul McDermott's The Sideshow and The Sharon Osbourne Show.

"The Wau Wau Sisters refuse to bow to any sort of theatrical courtesy. Their aesthetic is immediate, ragged and vigorous. They are utterly fearless." - The Skinny (UK)

"Sassy, salacious, sacrilegious and very funny" - The Herald Sun

"Irreverent, foul-mouthed, sexy and deliriously silly" - The Age
