Warning: Contains Nuts!

Nut: a crazy, mad person, an edible kernel or...

An afternoon stroll through a comic, quirky, and often dark forest of irreverent Tom Lehrer songs. Be prepared for an unusual look at education, love, life, and death, smattered with innuendo and songs in which humans and animals are harmed.

As a former teacher Laurence turns the Butterfly Club in to a classroom where rules are often broken. He takes a quirky look at plagiarism, corporal punishment, chemistry, sex education and much more besides. Tom Lehrer's songs from the fifties remain as relevant today as they did then.

Laurence trained at the Urdang Academy of Performing Arts in London's Covent Garden. His early work in Australia included Junction Theatre's The Pink Files; The Weimar Room; What's Your Persuasion?, and the Lampshade Shop's King of the West End. In 2010 he appeared in Helga Handfull – Live aus Berlin for the Adelaide Fringe Festival, a show he wrote, directed, and performed in German and English. Helga can be seen at Megadrag, and Dragorama at the Garden of Unearthly Delights while Laurence can be found singing at La Boheme's Cabaret Live (Adelaide) on the first Sunday of each month. Warning: Contains Nuts! can be seen at The Butterfly Club during the Melbourne Fringe Festival.
