What I Did For Love

A cabaret that will take you to the limits of love

What's the most vulnerable, bizarre or desperate thing that you have ever done for love?

In "What I Did for Love", one love addict journeys to the insane and sometimes criminal limits of desire as she discovers how far she is willing to go to find and keep love.

Written and performed by Anne Wilson, with Musical Direction by Steven Kreamer.

The Butterfly Club, South Melbourne

A surprising and hilarious cabaret that uses fresh arrangements of new and familiar pop and musical theatre songs to journey into the world of love and the perils that go with it.

Journeying from Queen to Britney, in this unpredictable cabaret the only certainty is that things are going to get messy on the rollercoaster of love.

Sydney performer/ improviser/ cabaret artist Anne Wilson is travelling down to Melbourne to prove her love to a local boy; the man of her dreams.

Will love prevail?

"A cut above. She captures something of the feeling of pathological self-sacrifice which attends co-dependency, embodied so eloquently. Eclectic... unconventional... brave... undeniably moving." - Lloyd Bradford Syke; Curtain Call

"Vivacious and dynamic" - Neil Litchfield; Stage Whispers
